THE VICTORIA CROSS.

(Extract from the London Gazette of the 17th September, 1901.)War Office, September 17, 1901.

The King has been graciously pleased to signify His intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Officer and Non-Commissioned Officer, whose claims have been submitted for His Majesty's approval, for their conspicuous bravery in South Africa, as stated against their names:—

Regiment.	Name.	Act of Courage for which recommended.
5th Lancers	Lieutenant F. B. Dugdale	On 3rd March, 1901, Lieutenant Dugdale, who was in command of a small outpost near Derby, having been ordered to retire, his patrol came under a heavy fire at a range of about 250 yards, and a Serjeant, two men, and a horse were hit. Lieutenant Dugdale dismounted and placed one of the wounded men on his own horse; he then caught another horse, galloped up to a wounded man and took him up behind him, and brought both men safely out of action.
and Battalion the Prince of Wales's Own West Yorks. Fire Regiment	Serjeant W. B. Traynor	During the night attack on Bothwell Camp on the 6th February, 1901, Serjeant Traynor jumped out of a trench and ran out under an extremely heavy fire to the assistance of a wounded man. While running out he was severely wounded, and being unable to carry the man by himself he called for assistance. Lance-Corporal Lintott at once came to him and between them they carried the wounded soldier into shelter. After this, although severely wounded, Serjeant Traynor remained in command of his section, and was most cheerful, encouraging his men till the attack failed.

INSTRUCTIONS, &c.

A.O 208.—*Additional Companies of Imperial Yeomanry for Service in South Africa.

1. With a view to the formation of additional companies of the Imperial Yeomanry for Service in South Africa, Imperial yeomen who have served in South Africa and have been discharged may be allowed to re-enlist into that corps. No other enlistments will be allowed.

No Imperial yeoman will be re-enlisted under this Order until after the 15th September.

3. Each company will be of the following establishment:—

- 1 major or captain.
- 4 subalterns.
- 1 company serjeant-major.
- 1 company quarter-master-serjeant.
- 1 farrier-serjeant.
- 4 serjeants.
- 3 shoeing smiths.
- 1 saddler.
- 2 buglers.
- 6 corporals (including paid lance-serjeants at the rate of 2 per battalion).
- 97 privates (including 4 paid lance-corporals).

Total 121 of all ranks.

* Issued as a Special Army Order, dated 9th September, 1901.

4. Imperial yeomen who were discharged as medically unfit will be allowed to re-enlist provided they are now fit. but disability pensions cannot be drawn concurrently with pay as a soldier.

5. Re-enlisted men, if accepted, will resume the rank held on discharge.

6. The following will be the qualifications for service :—

- (a) Every Imperial yeoman must enlist for 1 year, or, if the war lasts longer, for the war. In the event of the war being over in less than 1 year he may be discharged at once.
- (b) He must not have been discharged for any unsatisfactory cause
- (c) He must be medically fit for active service.
- (d) Married men and widowers with children may be accepted, provided that they state they are aware that no separation allowance will be issued (see paragraph 16), and that they signify on their form of attestation, their willingness to allot, from the date of embarkation for South Africa, two-fifths of their pay to their wives or children. On the termination of hostilities, facilities will be given, when possible, for the Imperial yeomen's families joining them in South Africa, should the Imperial yeomen desire to remain in that country.

7. In carrying out the medical examination of candidates it should be borne in mind that it is unnecessary that they should fulfil all the conditions of fitness required of a recruit enlisting for the full term of service in the Regular Army. The regulations under which such recruits are examined should, however, be taken as a general guide. The examining medical officer must satisfy himself that the candidate is of good physique and free from organic disease or other defect likely to prevent him from doing his duty on active service during the duration of the present war.

8. Discharged Imperial yeomen, not over the rank of corporal, desirous of re-enlisting should apply to the nearest recruiting officer, to whom they will show their discharge certificate. If the discharge is not for an unsatisfactory cause, and the applicant is in every way qualified, the recruiting officer will proceed with the enlistment, and will provide him with a railway warrant to Shorncliffe, with orders to report himself there to the Officer Commanding the 1st Provisional Battalion. The yeoman will be finally approved in accordance with the Recruiting Regulations.

Non-commissioned officers above the rank of corporal will be instructed to apply to the Officer Commanding the 1st Provisional Battalion, Shorncliffe, who will arrange to re-enlist the necessary number as each company is formed. If sufficient applicants are forthcoming to form 4 companies, he will also arrange for the re-enlistment of 1 acting regimental sergeant-major, 1 regimental quarter-master-sergeant, and 1 sergeant-cook.

9. Recruiting Officers will report by telegraph to the Officer Commanding the 1st Provisional Battalion, Shorncliffe the departure of all re-enlisted Imperial yeomen for Shorncliffe.

10. Should any yeoman, after attestation, prefer to remain at his home until the preparation of the draft which he is to accompany, he will be allowed to do so, and to draw a special lodging allowance of 1s. 3d. per diem, in addition to ration and messing allowance. His re-enlistment and address will be reported by the attesting officer to the Officer Commanding the 1st Provisional Battalion, Shorncliffe, from whom he will receive his pay and allowances, and, when his services are required, the railway warrant for conveyance to Shorncliffe. Imperial yeomen, who elect this course, will only receive their clothing and equipment on arrival at Shorncliffe.

11. The original attestations of all re-enlisted men who are approved will be sent to the Assistant Adjutant-General for Cavalry, 41, Pall Mall, London, who will re-allot the original regimental numbers. The duplicates will be sent to the Officer Commanding the 1st Provisional Battalion, Shorncliffe.

12. As soon as applications for, and notifications of, re-enlistments sufficient to form a company reach the Officer Commanding the 1st Provisional Battalion, he will at once telegraph to the Deputy Adjutant-General, Imperial Yeomanry, 16, Great George Street, S.W., for the necessary officers to accompany it to South Africa, when arrangements will be made to detail the officers and send them to Shorncliffe.

13. Individuals selected for commissions who do not already hold commissions in the Regular Forces, will be granted temporary commissions in the Army. If they are members of the Militia, Imperial Yeomanry (home), or Volunteers, they will be supernumerary in their corps and reabsorbed at the expiration of hostilities.

14. Men who, after attestation, are found "not likely to become efficient soldiers," whether on medical or military grounds, will be discharged by the officers competent to finally approve recruits, and sent to their homes at the public expense, without reference to higher authority.

The discharges in such cases will be carried out by an entry in the record of service on the third page of attestation, and will be reported under paragraph 1798, King's Regulations. Each man must be furnished with a discharge certificate on Army Form B 279.

15. The Officer Commanding the 1st Provisional Battalion, Shorncliffe, will render to the Station Paymaster, Shorncliffe, a statement on Army Form O 1796 of all allotments of pay. All casualties to Imperial yeomen enlisted under this order will be reported to the Station Paymaster, Shorncliffe.

16. The conditions of pay, &c., will be as follows:—

(i.) Up to and including the day prior to embarkation for South Africa, ordinary cavalry rates of pay and allowances will be drawn, except separation allowance.

(ii.) From date of embarkation the rates of pay will be on the following scale, which will be inclusive of good conduct pay:—

	s.	d.
Regimental serjeant major	9	0
Quarter-master-serjeant	8	6

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Superintendent Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 180 girls, and the desire of the Committee is to maintain the full complement.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average three candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.
